

Associate | Advocate & Solicitor (High Court of Malaya)

Rosanne Ignatius Loyola

T: +603 2731 9270
rosanne@tsl-legal.com

QUALIFICATIONS

Advocate and Solicitor, High Court of Malaya

Barrister-at-Law, England and Wales (Middle Temple)

University of Essex, LL.B. (Hons)

The University of Law, Birmingham, LL.M. (Distinction)

MEMBERSHIP

Member, Malaysian Bar

Member, Honourable Society of Middle Temple

Rosanne is an Associate in the dispute resolution team, with a diverse background in a broad range of matters spanning general civil, corporate and commercial litigation.

Prior to joining TSL Legal, Rosanne worked and trained with leading litigation practitioners in complex and high-stakes proceedings across all levels of the Malaysian courts. Through this experience, she sharpened her advocacy skills, gained hands-on exposure to trial work, and developed a meticulous, strategy-driven approach to litigation.

She graduated with an LL.B. (Hons) from the University of Essex, UK, and subsequently completed the Bar Professional Training Course and an LL.M. at the University of Law, Birmingham, UK, where she achieved Distinction in her LL.M.

Rosanne is fluent in English and Malay.

WORK HIGHLIGHTS

- Acted for a privately held hospitality and lifestyle company in a dispute concerning an alleged breach of banking facilities, despite the existence of a moratorium, valued at RM150,000,000.
- Resisted an ad-interim winding-up petition in the sum of US$33,000,000 and sought to stay the execution of the High Court judgment.
- Assisted in representing a Malaysian individual in a high-profile defamation matter involving the publication of a poison pen letter, which is believed to be the first of its kind in Malaysia.
- Advised a Taiwanese restaurant franchise in Malaysia in pursuing claims against its former directors for breaches of fiduciary duties, unauthorised fund transfers, unjust enrichment, and conspiracy to injure the company.
- Successfully obtained a bankruptcy order against an individual for negligent misrepresentation that resulted in a substantial investment in a fraudulent venture.
- Appealed the setting aside of a judgment in default against a company in a dispute regarding breaches of contract related to the purchase of agarwood trees in Thailand.
- Acted in a dispute involving multifaceted allegations of fraud, breach of fiduciary duties, and violations of strata and trust obligations.
- Assisted in a high-stakes civil action involving allegations of insider trading brought by a regulatory authority.